

AUDITION INFORMATION

ADVANCED COURSE IN DRAMA & PERFORMANCE Thursday 16th August –Saturday 25th August 2018

Malvern Theatres' Advanced Drama Course returns this August (16th-25th), providing practical skills to help aspiring actors succeed in the industry.

The nine-day intensive course for young adults (aged 16+) is taught by experienced professionals and covers everything from improvisation and stage combat to audition techniques and movement in performance. This year's course will be taught by theatre Chief Executive Nic Lloyd, actor Timothy West, director Sophie Boyce, West End star and Beyond the Barricade's Andy Reiss, and stage combat expert Keith Wallis among others.

Course content will include acting technique, working with directors, voice craft, movement and musical theatre, as well as stage production.

Additional guest tutors will be announced soon.

APPLICATIONS WILL CLOSE ON 10th June 2018

Auditions will take place in June & July

Dates are flexible; we will endeavour to accommodate all who apply.

Auditions will take place at Malvern Theatres. Nic Lloyd, will be conducting the auditions and other members of the creative team may also be present.

We request that applicants arrive early and in good time to meet and be signed in for the audition.

\ It may be that the Director asks you to stay for longer at your audition, please be prepared to be flexible should you be asked to stay.**

AUDITION MATERIAL

You will need to prepare one acting piece of your choice no longer than 3 minutes in duration. Your audition will be followed by an informal interview with Nic Lloyd.

Please remember to attach a headshot/passport sized photo to your application with your name clearly written on the back. You will be emailed nearer the time with an audition time slot and all of the details for the day.

If you require any further information regarding the auditions or information on the course then please contact me either by phone or email.

I wish you all the best with your audition.
