Introducing One Man, Two Guvvors

Returning to cinemas to mark National Theatre Live's 10th birthday, One Man, Two Guvvors was originally broadcast in 2011. This riotous comedy was a hit in both the West End and on Broadway, and it features a Tony Award-winning performance from the host of The Late Late Show, James Corden, as Francis Henshall.

Fired from his skiffle band, Francis Henshall becomes minder to Roscoe Crabbe, a small time East End hood, now in Brighton to collect £6,000 from his fiancée's dad. But Roscoe is really his sister Rachel posing as her own dead brother, who's been killed by her boyfriend Stanley Stubbers.

The permanently ravenous Francis spots the chance of an extra meal ticket and takes a second job with one Stanley Stubbers, who is hiding from the police and waiting to be reunited with Rachel. To prevent discovery, Francis must keep his two guvvnors apart. Simple.

Now, National Theatre Live are sharing this award-winning play to cinemas across the UK and around the world. Our state-of-the-art filming techniques are tailored specifically to each play. From close-ups that capture every flicker of emotion, to sweeping wide shots of the stage – you've got the best seat in the house.

We hope you enjoy the show.

National Theatre

At the National Theatre, we make world-class theatre that is entertaining, challenging and inspiring. And we make it for everyone.

We stage over 20 productions at our South Bank home in London each year. Our programme is broad and inclusive, appealing to the widest possible audiences with new plays, musicals, reimagined classics and work for young audiences. Our work is also seen in London's West End, on tour across the UK and internationally.

National Theatre Live

National Theatre Live distributes world-class theatre straight from stages across the United Kingdom to cinema screens around the world.

Working with the best of British theatre companies and producers, we simultaneously broadcast live theatre shows to cinemas in the UK, Europe and sometimes North America, as well as capturing the live performance for encore screenings in other territories.

Our live broadcasts and screenings have been seen by over 9 million people in 2,500 cinemas in 65 countries since we launched in 2009.
