A New Studio Space at Malvern Theatres

Work has now commenced on an ambitious new building project at Malvern Theatres. We are delighted that the first phase, a Changing Places facility, will open soon. This large accessible toilet for severely disabled people will be the first in the district, allowing us to welcome everyone in our community to the theatre.

Construction on the front extension has now been approved and preparatory work started. It will see the largest transformation to the building since our lottery funded project 25 years ago. With your support, our new Studio will enable us to expand our creative learning programme and provide life-changing opportunities for everyone in our community.

Paul Gauguin

Come and Colour the World at Malvern Theatres The Big Draw Festival 2022

FREE – Malvern Theatres, Forum Annex
Suitable for all ages

Monday 24th October 2022 10.30am - 12.30pm

The Big Draw 2022 theme of Come Back to Colour is also an invitation back to collective creativity. Just as blue and yellow makes green, when we come together, we can make something new and previously unimagined. What we had lost during previous years has been returned to us and the treasures it brings are limitless.

This year, at Malvern Theatres, we will make something together - big, bold banners of everyone's favourite colours, the promise of a shared future. Come along and explore the vibrancy of patterns, make your mark on a bright and dazzling art project like no other! We will rip, stick and blot tissue paper and paint, taking colourful inspiration from contemporary artists and authors!

malverntheatres A CHRISTMAS CAROL

Malvern Theatres Stage Company presents

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

BY CHARLES DICKENS
ADAPTED AND DIRECTED BY NIC LLOYD

On a snowy Christmas Eve, the mean-spirited Ebenezer Scrooge is visited by the ghost of his business partner Jacob Marley, who is weighed down by the accumulated chains of a lifetime of greed. Marley tells Scrooge he will be visited by three further spirits, each of whom will offer Scrooge an unsettling vision of himself, as well as an opportunity to change his ways ... before it's too late.

Dickens's most famous short story sold out in five days following its publication in 1843. It has never been out of print since and has been the subject of many film, stage and television adaptations. As succinct as it is timeless, Dickens's portrait of the meaning of Christmas remains one of enduring resonance.

A Seasonal treat for all the family, A Christmas Carol is adapted by Nic Lloyd, who also directs this inaugural production by the Malvern Theatres Stage Company.

Tues 20th - Fri 30th Dec
